Your Data

Here at Andrés Food Bar we are constantly striving to provide quality and valued services to all our customers. As a company we are working hard to make elements of our business and website as user-friendly as possible, this includes addressing new data regulations (including GDPR) and improving security. Andrés Food Bar understand the importance of privacy, your data belongs to you which means you have the right to be forgotten. We aim to give you more control over your information, and put measures in place to keep your information secure. As a company we are always looking to improve our products and services, giving you (our valued customers) the best possible user experience. We do keep data in our system until it is no longer relevant, but you can request we remove it at any time.
